He served companies such as AT&T, Dannon, Amway, Texas Instruments, and many more, who described his keynotes and workshops as transformative.

What Event Coordinators Said

"He hit a homerun with our audience! Not only did they find the material compelling, they found him to be an incredible communicator whose extensive research and natural curiosity makes his interactive sessions so meaningful and on target."

"Presentation was a big hit. The power of the presenter can be judged by how long after the presentation the audience stays. They were here a full hour after the event."

"Yoram's keynote was engaging, entertaining, and enlightening. He brings interesting perspectives to changing culture in organizations, while using humor, and engaged the audience in a thought-provoking exercise. I haven't seen this topic presented this way before."

"Dr. Yoram Solomon's keynote was the kick-off for our conference and was the perfect way to get the attendees inspired, entertained and ready. His method of delivery was humorous and gave us all the chance to think and learn. He delivered a keynote that truly engaged the audience."
